

WHAT Is OUR COUNTRY DOING To CONFRONT THE MEN'S HEALTH CRISIS?

Explore the latest medical advances and procedures in our CLINICAL TRACK

Examine the impact of mental health issues in our PSYCHO-SOCIAL/BEHAVIORAL FACTORS TRACK

Take an in-depth look at public policy issues related to Men's Health during our PUBLIC POLICY TRACK

Learn about health services and prevention efforts geared specifically to men in our COMMUNITY HEALTH INITIATIVES TRACK

Attend panel discussions related to the Track Topics

Visit pharmaceutical companies and Men's Health organizations at on-site health fairs and exhibits

Receive professional accreditations for attending approved Tracks

2005 NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MEN'S HEALTH

EXAMINING THE CRITICAL HEALTH ISSUES FACING MEN ACROSS AMERICA

When: October 6-8, 2005 Where: Sheraton Midtown Atlanta Hotel at Colony Square
188 14th Street (at Peachtree) Atlanta, Georgia 30361 • Phone: (404) 892-6000

S P O N S O R S

Penn State Outreach and Cooperative Extension, the College of Health and Human Development and Penn State College of Medicine
Community Voices at the National Center for Primary Care at Morehouse School of Medicine
Men's Health Network

National Center
for Primary Care
at Morehouse School of Medicine

Community Voices
HEALTHCARE FOR THE UNDERSERVED

For more information, please visit www.outreach.psu.edu/conf/MensHealth or call 1-800-PSU-TODAY (778-8632).

Design and Artwork by: Graphic Works, Inc. • www.GraphicWorksAtlanta.com